

NOBEL PRIZE WINNERS

1901- 2019

LAUREATES

923

MALE LAUREATES

869

FEMALE LAUREATES

54

AWARD
CATEGORIES

6

REPRESENTED COUNTRIES

79

MULTIPLE AWARD WINNERS

MARIE CURIE

Physics, Chemistry
1903,1911

LINUS PAULING

Chemistry, Peace
1954,1962

FREDERICK SANGER

Chemistry(Twice)
1958, 1980

JOHN BARDEEN

Physics(Twice)
1956,1972

PRIZE CATEGORIES BY GENDER

Male dominance is huge across all categories

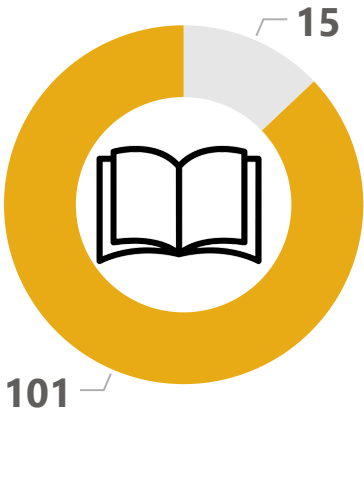

Chemistry

Economics

Literature

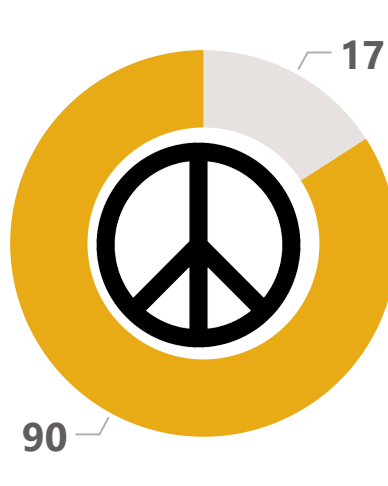

female male

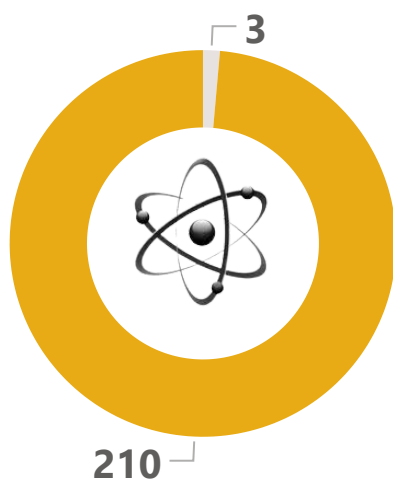

Medicine

Peace

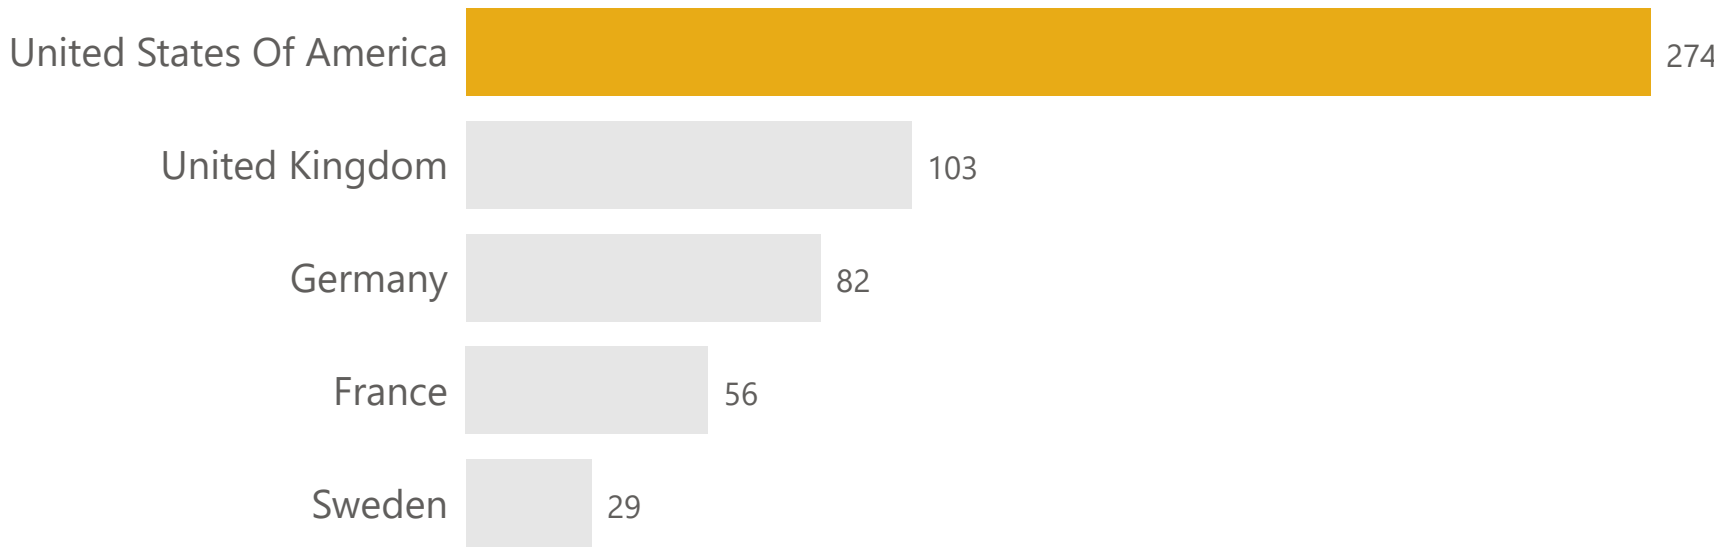

Physics

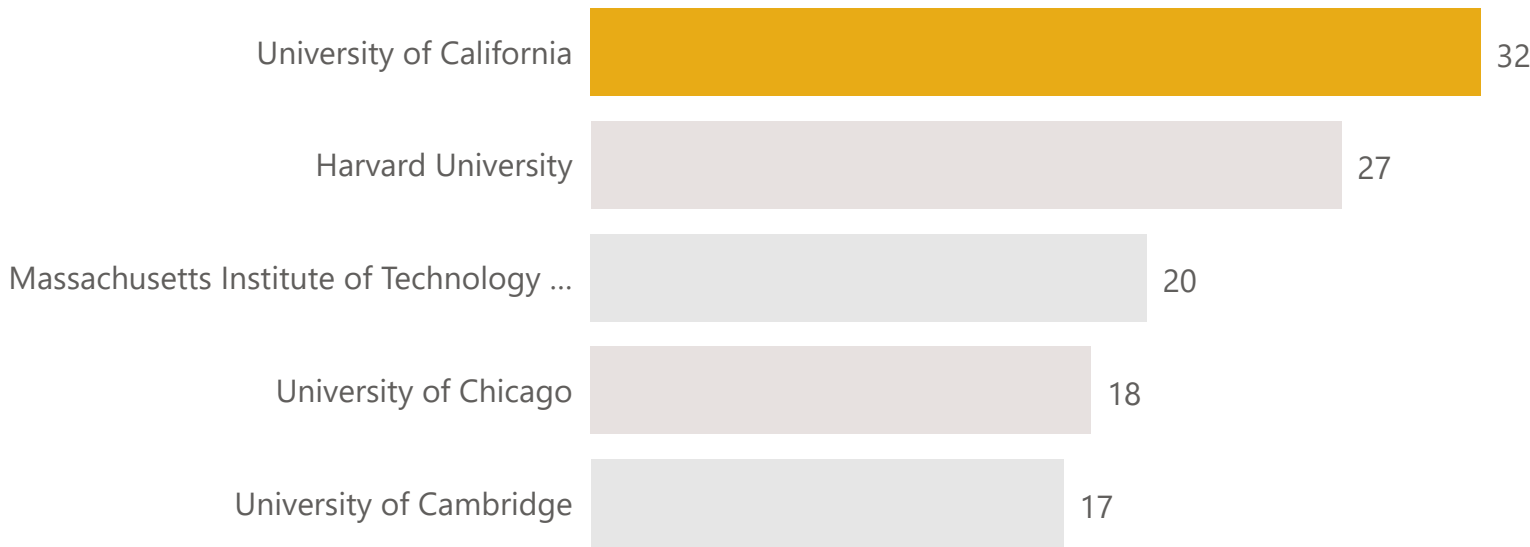

COUNTRIES

USA is certainly the homeland of Nobel prize as it is the country with the most Nobel Prize.

UNIVERSITIES

TOP 5 Universities in which Nobel Prize winners graduated from are located in USA.

YEARS

After the 1940s, the total awards tends to rise steadily.
A new Category Economics was added in the 1960s, which resulted in more Nobel Prize winners.

COLLABORATION

Medicine had the highest number of collaborative Laureates.

YOUNGEST & OLDEST WINNERS

MALALA YOUSAFZAI

Received Nobel Prize in Peace
at the age of 17 years in 2014

JOHN GOODENOUGH

Received Nobel Prize in Chemistry
at the age of 97 years in 2019

WINNER FROM NIGERIA

Professor Wole Soyinka was born in the city of Abeokuta, Ogun State in Nigeria on 13th July 1934.

He received the Nobel Prize in Literature in 1986, becoming the first African Laureate.